More from the Lions

The Chadwick Lions recent activities have been the continuing upgrading of the Legion Hall with the addition of a east side sidewalk and the installation of a larger electrical service.

Flags were placed in honor of the service men and women who served in recognition of Veterans Day along Hwy 40 and in the Chadwick Cemetery. The winner of this year's annual Peace Poster design contest was Haley Ranfelt. On Thanksgiving Day, after enjoying the cinnamon rolls and coffee supplied by Larry and Sandy Miller, lights were installed on the downtown light poles, and new this year, was the addition of lighting on the Merkel Memorial tree in the park. Continuing on with the Christmas activities, on December 8th, Christmas Fruit baskets were "built" and distributed to citizens who live by themselves. Additionally a Lions committee utilized up to $1200 to buy Christmas gifts and/or gift cards for needy children in Chadwick and Milledgeville schools.
